changed by a woman's charm.

The reason the mystery remains after the exposure of Premier Mussolini's paper is that Popolo Italia writes the story in three parts, in one of which it uses slightly altered names and uses slightly altered names and uses thirteenth century Italian, making the whole read like Boccaclo's Decameron tales. The first part merely tells the facts of the Silesian plebiscite. The whole exposure is headed:

"How Count Sforza in 1921 safeguarded the dignity of the nation."

The article attacks Count Sforza for his laison lasted from foreign attaches called for information, the massacre of Italian troops by Polish irregulars. Twenty-one Italians were killed. Instead of demanding satisfaction and sending more troops to insure an honest plebiscite. Presmier Mussolini's paper charges that no action was taken, but, on the other hand, Count Sforza withdrew the Italian troops, leaving the Polish irregulars to cohirol the plebiscite.

An Agreeable Experies

A stringent antichild labor law was passed, although the national child labor amendment failed of ratification.

Despite early prospects of a political deadlock between the Republican Senate and the Democratic House, the Legislature carried out a large part of Gov. Hannett's program including a bill providing for an effort to collect $6,000,000 in back taxes: a 3-cent gasoline tax to raise highway funds; a new tax code; an amended educational code, to assure a full school term and laws for regulation and taxation of the oil industry, including a tax on the output of oil and gas wells.

The Legislature voted to ratify the Colorado River treaty on a six-State basis.

On, or course you know a lot about the radio and cross-word puzzles, but who cares, since people will talk about the movies? Why feel out of place when you can be in the know by reading Motion Picture Classic, the smart, gay, amusing guide to all shadowland? Classic is running over with the latest, authoritative information about the screen. It's the magazine of first-nighters, of those lucky, envied people who can talk brilliantly about screen idols' technique and that sort of thing.

Where do all the movies come from anyway? Who are the unsung Polas and the unknown Valentinos? In short, who are they who make the pictures that blossom in lurid posters for a night and a day, and then pass? Dorothy Donnell has written a snappy article about them-the free-lance producers, the independents, the unheralded aspirants of fame. She calls it "Poverty Row," but it is a Wall Street of thrills. Read it in the April issue of Classic-out today.

And there is a wealth of very lively and informing articles which put you in touch with all movieland. In fact, bring you right into the Hollywood center of population, so to speak.

KEARNS PARKS IN NEW YORK

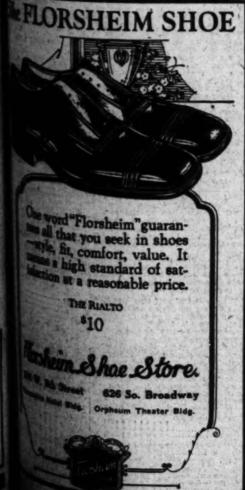

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

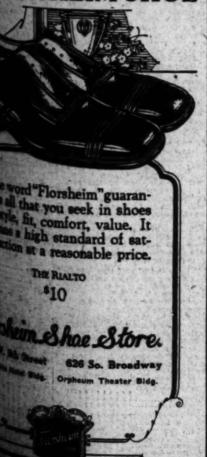

NEW YORK, March 15 .- Jack Kearns, dapper as ever and apparently unworried by the twenty-four-hour ultimatum sent to him and Jack Dempsey by the New York State Boxing Commis-sion, breezed into town today from the Pacific Coast and almost immediately went into con-ference with Charles L. Henderson, the Brooklyn promoter who proposes to build a boxing arena in Long Island City which he says will have a seating capacity of 110,000 persons. During the course of his stay in this city Kearns expects to receive propositions from other promoters but he said today that it will be doubtful whether Dempsey would box either Harry Wills or Tom Gibbons before next fall. He said that the champion would meet one or the other on or about Labor Day but he indicated that it was hardly probable that Jack would meet both of these challengers this year.

SAN GABRIEL OBSERVAT

THE Occidental-Po m o n a track meet, scheduled for Patterson Field, Occidental Colege, this coming Saturday, promises to live right up to the precedent established by the precedent established by the preceding meets, the last three of which have been won by Occidental by winning the relay. That's about the only difference this year, the chances being that Pomona will upset the parade of Occidental wins and capture the conference title by something in the neighborhood of ten points.

From a glimpse of the teams in action and a close inspection of the dope sheet it looks as though the meet depends on the ability of Coach Pipal to bring his men along this week. If the Tigers make only average progress during the next few days Pomona looks like a cinch for the Sagehens are in far better shape than the Tigers right now. If the Tigers are a fall fighting chance to win.

The C.O. of the battleship Mississippi called the sailor back for duty.

Eddie broke camp here where he has been training for his ten-round bout Tuesday night at Vernon with Tony Fuents.

The duty he was to perfor was to box a big marins, kid Cartis.

Huffman stopped Curis in the second round.

"That was made to order for us." says Mike Grealis who is training Huffman for the Fuente battle.

"Nothing could have been planned that would suit us as well as that. Huffman not only found his real condition, but he gained confidence in himself. All handlers of fighters would like to have their mean step out and take a paluka match just before a big fight if they weren't afraid of accidents. Huffman didn't have an accident. So we know he is ready to go now."

When Benny Leonard was training for Mickey Walker last fall he took on a tune-up bout at Cleveland with Fal Moran. Benny just wanted to find out how he stacked up in condition.

That fight cost both Leonard and Walker a big purse. Leonard hurt his thumb. The Walker match was canceled. And since then Benny has retired from the ring and it may never be beld.

Huffman was performing a millitary duty, however. The big sailor never knew what real condition was until he took the Fuente fight. Under expert hands he has developed. His body is in fine shape. His wind is fine. Eddie never had wired up both by smart sparrive partners and brainy managency.

Fuence appears to be in good shape, too.

He is lighter by ten or fifteen pounds than when he fought before. This has added to his speed.

Those who watch the Mexican heavy work at the Manhattan gym say Tony never really was in condition for a fight before.

The fat has melted off his midection. The jowls are less prominent. Fuente is a better bozer than Huffman.
Whether he is a better fighter remains to be seen.

Bob Roper gave Ralph Smith, the California giant, a terrific beating. And Huffman won a six-round decision from Roper. The sailor must have something in his sock album to do that.

Workers' strike including the highest governmental officials, are working feverishly in an attempt to avoid the serious results threatened with the expiration of the workers' ultimatum Monday evening. Both sides apparently are becoming more determined, as under the combined influence of the Facist and the anti-Facist unions, the stoppage of work threatens to spread not only to other sections of the metal industry, but even to other industries. The number of strikers is conservatively estimated at 100,000. Building activity continues to run close to the rate established early last year, according to the F. W. Dodge Corporation. February contracts aggregated $299,260,000 for thirty-six Stat's, comprising about seven-eighths of the country's construction. The figures are slightly under February, 1924, and less than 1 per cent over January this year. The total of $595,653,000 for the first two months of 1925 shows a decline of 1-2 of 1 per cent under last year.

With the Athens area of the Rosecrans field steadily increasing its output of light oil and wet gas, and the Ventura field following closely in its wake, Los Angeles appears to be facing another gasoline war.

Marketing companies have been shipping large quantities of gasoline to world ports in recent weeks, but the supply of gasoline has been piling up in storage tanks at various points in the Los Angeles Basin, and companies which desire ready money to meet big obligations are eager to unload a part of their reserve.

It is not at all unlikely that the early part of this week will witness the outbreak of a new gasoline war in Los Angeles (ty and county, with prices going perhaps as low as 16 cents a gallon, State tax paid.

IN AN INSURRECTION

There was that day when a broncho mule and myself were the star actors in a hectic sketch acted in a bullet-swept street of Santa Rosalia, Mex., during the Madero rebellion of 1911.

The insurrectos had attacked the town the day before. They had worked their way around the outskirts of the pueblo until the Federal troops were encircled. The second day the rebels were closing their lines, mining from house to house with picks and crowbars.

A freight carload of dynamite had been captured in the railroad yards. The insurgents made tin can grenades of this dynamite, threw lighted sticks on the roofs, and shot up the town tike a gang of small boys celebrating an old-fashioned Fourth of July.

With a squad of Mexicans I had worked my way down one of the main streets toward the plana. We had taken refuge in an opening off the street where the adobe walls formed an aisle of safety about TinG ON BIG SCALE some drunken genius in the insurgent army conceived a brilliant idea. He packed two boxes of 66 per cent dynamite on the back of a small mule and tied a dried palm ileaf to the animal's tail. The idea was that the mule would stampede down the street until it arrived at the corner where the soldiers were. Then the rebels would shoot into the boxes, explode the dynamite, and blow up the mule like an animated mine in the faces of the soldiers.

It was a great idea but the strategists forgot to figure on the street kicking at the ratting palm nature of the mule. The contrary beast came careening down the street kicking at the ratting palm caure of the mule. The contrary beast came careening down the street kicking at the ratting palm caure of the mule. NEGLECT COSTLY

NEGLECT COSTLY

Failure to make the necessary connections for gas, light, sewer and water mains before paving has been laid in the past has resulted in expense, inconvenience, and actual destruction of newly laid pavement.

Thousands of broken automobile springs, numerous accidents, and even personal injuries have resulted. It is believed that the situation has prevailed through ignorance on the part of the property owners of the necessary steps to be taken. It is to remedy this situation that the automobile club is undertaking the rather large task of placing warning signs along all streets where paving is scheduled. If property owners will act upon these the benefits will accrue not only to themselves but to the city, the public utilities companies, motorists and the public in general.

here today after an absence of forty years to find the city he had helped to lay out as a surveyor for the Centinela-Inglewood Land

Shes has already consulted Attorney Chris Bacon about securing a divorce, the actress admitted. What the charges would be, she would not say, however.

"My husband hasn't worked a lot since we were married." she stated. "He did a vaudeville act with me and then got a job in a show, but it didn't last. Then he had an allness and hard luck and I came through to help him. But it's all over now. I am going to get my divorce and go back into pictures."

The final separation from her husband took place about a month ago, Miss Lake accared.

WASHINGTON, March 15.-

Postal Service is no longer responsible for its care and the laws of the Federal government, which contain stern provisions to insure the inviolability of mail and to punish those who meddle with are no longer applicable.

The public is naturally jealous of its right to the unmolested reception of its mail and frequently invokes the aid of the government to protect it from what is regarded as unwarranted or illegal cases where mail has ceased to

The Federal courts from time to time have rendered decisions upon matters involving the question of when mail deases to be mail. It has been said that a letter, packet or other valuable thing having been committed to the

Signature of the Market of Dawson are a Thing of the Past

It is a changed Yukon of which old-timers now speak. Several of them are in hospitals in Vancouver this winter, and they look back with some regret to the old roistering winter life in Dawson, which has passed away as the floating population of adventurous prospectors dwindles, and power equipment largely takes the place of hand tools. The hard working, hard drinking crowd of argonauts of '97 and '98 is no more. A few still seek the "kolden fleece" upon distant streams, but the old thrill of spending quick earnings in blastics to floating dance halls is a thing of the Dawson of today is a highly

Another development which is serving to bind together the old timers, and which may even bring many of them together again, is the new gold discovery which has been made in the Dease Lake section of the Cassiar district, in Northern British Columbia. The question is whether there will be a place for them among the great power-driven dredges which will now work the creeks.

Like Columbia River and a 1,000,000-volt-testing cuttift for the commonwealth Edison's Company of Chicago, and a similar outfit for the new plant of the General Electric Company at West Philadelphia, for use in testing high-voltage switch-board apparatus, the plans of Less and Stanford University indicate with fresh emphasis the belief of electrical men in a tremendous further development in their field. Sottish Court Holds Swain's Ardent Missive Constitutes Marriage EDINBURGH. March 15.—In one of the most unusual cases which has come before the Scottlish courts in years, a love letter has been accepted as a marriago certificate by a judge in order to give a young mother the name of her flance, who has vanished, and to legitimize her child.

The girl, Margaret M. Morrison, 36 years of age, declared that her flance, William Evans, 27, had promised to marry her before he started for America. But he didn't return and his letters ceased.

The chance preservation of a love letter led Lord Ashmore, the judge, to state that it showed the defendant had promised marriage and that he would issue a decree of declaration of marriage.

The love note read: "My Own Darling:—And to think that before I met you I did not believe in love. But, then, you see, my darling. I did not know you, and who could resist failing in love with you? Now you have got me for keeps. Life would be empty for me without you. I could forgive, but I could never forget you."

On, or course you know a lot about the radio and cross-word puzzles, but who cares, since people will talk about the movies? Why feel out of place when you can be in the know by reading Motion Picture Classic, the smart, gay, amusing guide to all shadowland? Classic is running over with the latest, authoritative information about the screen. It's the magazine of first-nighters, of those lucky, envied people who can talk brilliantly about screen idols' technique and that sort of thing.

Where do all the movies come from anyway? Who are the unsung Polas and the unknown Valentinos? In short, who are they who make the pictures that blossom in lurid posters for a night and a day, and then pass? Dorothy Donnell has written a snappy article about them-the free-lance producers, the independents, the unheralded aspirants of fame. She calls it "Poverty Row," but it is a Wall Street of thrills. Read it in the April issue of Classic-out today.

Fourteen months ago, when Gwinn was forced to give up his work, the skillful manufacture of braces and crutches for crippied children at Santa Rosa, the boys and girls there declarred that no one as kind as Gwinn had been to them could be guilty of the offence with which he was charged.

Through their activities Representative Wurzbach became interested in the case, and he, in turns succeeded in interesting the Attorney-General and the President.

One of President Coolidge's first official acts after his inaugural was the signing of the paper which swung open the big foor at the penitentiary for Gwinn.

In the east several coaches have made it a point to watch the Finn in every race. They have studied his methods of not only running but living as well. Length of his stride has been measured repeatedly, his arm action has been noted and the absolute lack of lost motion indicated.

While the general opinion prevails that Nurmi is a superrunner, that he has such wonderful endurance, the fact remains American coaches can learn something of his style of running which may be profitable in their coaching work. American coaches have followed too closely certain ideas of coaching and training which have been in vogue to many years.

coaching and training which have been in vogue co-many years.

SPORTS IMPROVE

Football, the major intercollegiate aport, has improved since the coming of the new game back in 1906. Improvement is shown in the general play each season because the coaches are continually on the alert for something new. Raving crews are quick to adopt the stroke of a successful eight and the same is true of offensive and defensive formation in banketball. Coaches who have followed Nurmi's racing have undoubtedly learned some things which will help them in developing middle-distance performers. At least this is their opinion as voiced at recent indoor meets and relay games. The continued success of the Finn has shown the ceaches the majority of athletes can run foot races more than once a week. It has been the American custom to pamper their athletes a little too much. In fact, some of the mentors state their charges do not receive enough actual compelition to acquire experience, a necessary asset to success'ul foot racing.

Nurmi has established records which will stand for years. The Finn shattered marks established by Alfred Shrubb, the Englishman saveral years ago. Some of Nhrubb's marks were looked upon as unbreakable until the coming of Nurmi who is now regarded as the greatest middle distance runners at the into the discard.

Not only is Nurmi's appearance in this country helpful to our ceaches, but it should prove an incentive for the development of more middle distance runners. Raiph Rose set the world's record for putting the 16-pound shot at 51ft., and ever since that time the mark has defied all attempts of the world's best weight men to crase it.

Years before 1909 our English ancestors came over to America and started dropping their Hs. The Hills, the Hartranft and the Hgusers spring up in the East and the West, and in the last few years Ralph Hills. Glen Hartranft and Clarence Houser have given many marvelous exhibitions of strength. You might even say that "they put the H in strength."

These three athletes excel at weight throwing, and last year met in several stirring contests at putting the abot. Hartranft, after coming within a fraction of an inch of Rose's record on the Coast, came East to win the intercollegiate championships for his school, Stanford University, in both the shot put and the discus throw. A few weeks later at the final Olympic tryouts Bud Houser, from the University of Southern California, won the shot and discus, and repeated at the games in Paris, beating "Tiny" and Raloh by a few scant inches. The "three Hs' had beaten the world at their favorite events.

Still later it was Hills's turn to become a champion. At the national A.A.U, meet in Newark he won the gold medal, but "Tiny" and "Bud" were far away at their homes in Southern California, Hills has put over 49 feet.

Both Hartranft and Houser have exceeded Rose's world's record in practice, as well as the world's discus throw mark. Each has another year of competition, and any day now news may come out of the West of one or the other "pulling a Nurmi" on poor old Ralph Rose. Both of the westerners are married, while Hills, at last reports, was still happy.

never had a place at any training table. Still Nurmi drinks coffee at least twice a day and never misses it for breakfast. Before a race, the Finn generally jogs at least half a mile in order to be thoroughly warmed up. American athletes, who take part in the middle distance runs, seldom run any considerable distance and some never even loosen up their muscles before the starting pistol is fired. Running is a business with Nurmi. He has made a study of the sport. Probably never before in the history of sthictics has a runner carried as and water and Day were mauled all over the lot, but Shleido's underhand stuff stopped the Seals in the history of sthictics has a runner carried as and water to judge his pace. This is what the Finn did in the Olympic games and several American runners are now doing the same thing. It has generally been the American custom for the coach or trainer to hold the watch and shout to the runner, his time for certain distances.

ALWAYS KEEP FIT

Youngsters taking pitching seriously should keep in good physical condition in and out of season. You can't neglect your body part of the year without paying for it. Walter Johnson is a fine example of a pitcher who knows how to take care of himself physically. He is a great our-of-deors man and in the off season tramps a good many miles a day. Such care is one of the chief reasons for his success on the mound.

The young pitcher should get as much fresh air as possible. When he is in good shape he can try out his speed and curves. He'll soon find himself able to stand the strain of a full game. Let the training work start with light tasks. These can be gradually increased until the goal is reached. Once you get in proper condition it is easy to stay there. Above all things beware of getting too fat. A little goes a long way with a ball player.

REPORT ON RAND MINE IS ADVERSE

Engineer for Syndicate in East Opposes Purchase; Says Price Too High

In connection with the option given to New York interests by the majority stockholders of the California Rand Silver, Inc., commonly known as the Kelly mine, on 1,200,000 shares of the stock the exported that Pope Yateman, mining engineer who directed an exhaustive examination of the property, has definitely advised against the purchase.

This report, it is said, was based upon a month's careful survey of the mine, in which he was assisted by a corps of engineers and samplers. Thousands of samples were cut, the geology was carefully studied, the surrounding ground upon which options were likewise taken was exploited, and when the work was completed Mr. Yateman announced that he had reported adversely on exercising the option.

The owners of the mine, it seems, did not offer the stock for sale, the request to purchase coming from New York along with a forfeit of $25,000. The offer, it is asserted, was based upon an understanding derived from brokerage promoters that there were $2,00,000 or 10,000 000 ounces of silver in sight in the mine. Since repeated surveys by the owners showed less than 4,900,000 ounces, they promptly agreed to option their stock at $2,5 a share, but now the survey by the New York engineers has verified the estimate of the engineer of the mine. The survey of the estimate of the engineer of the mine. The dood to not its below $1,000,000 or less than a dollar a share, and this showing was the basis for the Yateman adverse report, it is asserted. The option still has about fifty days to run, and it is reported that a movement is on foot by some brokerage firms to take over the stock at the Take ove

Market Aid Seen Drop of 21/2 Cents Forecast for This Week With Stocks Piling Up in Storage Tanks

With the Athens area of the Rosecrans field steadily increasing its output of light oil and wet gas, and the Ventura field following closely in its wake, Los Angeles appears to be facing another gasoline war.

Marketing companies have been shipping large quantities of gasoline to world ports in recent weeks, but the supply of gasoline has been piling up in storage tanks at various points in the Los Angeles Basin, and companies which desire ready money to meet big obligations are eager to unload a part of their reserve.

It is not at all unlikely that the early part of this week will witness the outbreak of a niw gasoline war in Los Angeles city and county, with prices going perhaps as low as 16 cents a gallon, State tax paid.

The insurrectos had attacked the town the day before. They had worked their way around the outskirts of the pueble until the Federal troops were encircled. The accord day the rebels were closing their lines, mining from house to house with picks and crowbars. A freight carload of dynamite had been captured in the railroad yards. The insurgents made tin can grenades of this dynamite, threw lighted sticks on the roofs, and shot up the town like a gang of small boys celebrating an old-fashioned Fourth of July.

With a squad of Mexicans I had worked fify way down one of the main streets toward the plaza. We had taken refuge in an opening off the street where the adobe wails formed an isle of safety about fifteen feet square.

Girls! Learn This Important Secret

All the mouth washes in the world can only disguise the breath for a short time. The trut, will out when the effect wears off. Deeper lies the secret. The cause of unpleasant breath must be remedied. A disordered stomach makes itself known in spite of any and all gargles, mouth washes and perfumes. Cleanse the internal tract. Remove the accumulated food waste that causes all the trouble. This is the chief function of Veronica, the natural mineral water. Cently and harmlessly Veronica dissolves the corrupt particles, soothes and heals the mucuous lining of the stomach and leaves the intestinal tract.clean. and the breath once more becomes sweet and pure.

PHOTOGRAPHY AIDED MOUNTAIN MEMORIAL

One of the first problems to solve in the great project, the Stone Mountain Memorial to General Robert E. Lee and the cause of the Confederacy, which is now the object of so much controversy, was how to outline a design of such generous proportions on the face of a precipice. The ultimate dimensions of the grantic panorama are 200 by 1300 feet—nearly a quarter of a mile of marching figures. The distance from the knee of Lee's horse to the hat of the great Confederate leader is 120 feet. At its extreme point the barrellet would attain a depth of twenty feet, but the calculated average depth is about four feet. First it was planned to pour a solution of silver nitrate over the face of the mountain and then photograph the design on the living granite by means of a powerful stereopticon. Finally this ambitious photographic project was abandoned in favor of spacing the outline of the figures in white paint for the pneumatic drillers to follow.

This would recuire a huge stereopticon, capable of throwing a pirture 1300 feet and covering 50,000 square feet of mountain gets. The street was the space of the square feet of mountain and interpolation of silver in white paint for the pneumatic drillers to follow.

NEGLECT COSTLY

Failure to make the necessary connections for gas. light, sewer and water mains before paving has been laid in the past has resulted in expense, inconvenience, and actual destruction of newly laid pavement.

Thousands of broken automobile springs, numerous accidents, and even personal injuries have resulted. It is believed that the situation has prevailed through ignorance on the part of the property owners of the necessary steps to be taken. It is to remedy this situation that the automobile club is undertaking the rather large task of placing warning signs along all streets where paving is scheduled. If property owners will act upon these the benefits will accrue not only to themselves but to the city, the public utilities companies, motorists and the public in general. SELF-RELIANCE When it comes to that, the most fatal habit in the world is asking advice.

It is one thing to listen to

It is one thing to listen to suggestions: it is quite another thing to appoint some casual friend as your judge, and anxiously turn yourself inte a humble suppliant.

Joseph Schenck, the millionaire movie producer, told me that he began to succeed when he began to rely absolutely on his own judgment.

In the end you have to rely upon your own brain. Endlessly asking advice merely confuses the issue.
